KUHIO'S KOLOA SPEECH

SHOWS HAWAIIANS FALSITY OF CHARGES BY OPPONENTS

HAS SOWN THE SEED OF SUCCESS—GOT MORE FOR HAWAII THAN COULD OLDER CONGRESSMEN.

The Garden Island publishes the following detail of Delegate Kuhio's speech at the Koioa, Kauai, rally:

Fellow citizens:—This is the second time that I have had the pleasure of standing before you as the Republican candidate for Delegate to Congress. I understand that the Democrats have told you that if you vote for their Delegate to Congress we will derive more benefits for this Territory. This is nonsense. The Republican party is the only party that will benefit the Territory. They have also told you that if Parker would be elected, Governor Geo. R. Carter will be removed from office. This is another lie. The Republicans are the only ones that have the power to discharge Governor Carter. Lauka and Nottley are expressing themselves through the newspapers. I am not a man to speak through the papers. I speak mouth to mouth with you. What I promised you two years ago, I have accomplished. I have done three things for this Territory: 1, light houses; the first thing I did was to talk it over with the Lighthouse Board. They told me that as the Hawaiian Islands were island possessions it ought to be left with Congress. I told them that Hawaii is a Territory and it was the first time they ever knew of it. Today our lighthouses are being taken care of by the Federal Government.

2, I have secured an appropriation for $20,000 for the erection of a Federal building in Honolulu. 3, I asked Congress for an appropriation for $500,000 for the beginning of fortifications in Hawaii, but it was reduced to $300,000. This, of course, is not enough to build the fortifications wanted, but it is only for the beginning.

These are what I have done, and nothing else. I presented lots of other bills before Congress, but they are now in the hands of the different committees. I tell you, it is not easy work in the House of Representatives. If you should stand up and make a speech, they will say "Sit down." In the House of Representatives the Republican Representatives occupy the right side of the hall and the Democrats on the left side. There is no such thing as Home Rulers in Congress. In the House the Republicans have the majority. If you should want to make a speech you have to ask the Speaker's permission first, and if he permits you you can then speak. By being acquainted with the Senators and Representatives of the United States, I think I can do more for our Territory than Lauka or Nottley. For the good of the Territory I believe that by sending a Republican Delegate to Congress he can do more than any other Delegate. Not only that, if we will send a new man to Congress, he will have to work himself up. He must be a man on the side that gives everything.

I have sown my seeds in Washington, and if you will send me back I shall finish my work and reap the crop. If the other Delegate is elected he will have to plow the land before he can sow his seeds. He would have to begin the same way as I did. As I have been there before, I think a man that has gone so far is better than the new man.

There have been lots of things said about me: That I am incompetent. If you had sent one hundred delegates to Washington they could not have done more than I did. If you read the Congressional Record, you will see that the Territory of Hawaii received more favors from Congress than many of the States. Some Representatives have not been there for years, still they have not got their share yet. I want you, fellow citizens, to work through your Delegate. You will gain more by it. This idea of working through outsiders show the jealousy of such people. They come to Washington and interfere with my work to a great extent. It's no good to send me there if you are not going to back me up.

The Democrats and Home Rulers have accused me of presenting a bill in Congress that in ten years you will lose your right to vote. This is untrue. They also say that if the bill would be passed you will be put in jail for speaking the Hawaiian language. Who ever heard of such a law? If that's the case the Japs would be arrested also for talking Japanese, and also the other nationalities. According to Section 44 of the Organic Act all proceedings of the Legislature shall be in the English language. In my bill, I wanted to make the Hawaiian language an official language too for ten years more. It does not state that you will lose your right to vote or you shall be put in jail for using it.

The bill referred to reads as follows: Whereas, many citizens of Hawaii of the Hawaiian race have been educated in the Hawaiian language and are familiar with the elements of constitutional government, American institutions and history, without being able to read, write and speak the English language understandingly; and,

Whereas, nearly all the Hawaiians under middle age have been educated in the English language, now, therefore

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, That for the period of ten years from and after the passage of this Act both the English and Hawaiian languages may be used as official languages in legislative proceedings of the said Territory, so far as the same may be necessary to an intelligent transaction of the business thereof, at the expiration of which time English shall be the sole official language.

Gentlemen, I am accused by the Home Rulers and Democrats that I have despised the Hawaiian race by discharging my private secretary, but they have not stated the reason why I did so. When I was elected two years ago, I was urged to accept several secretaries to take to Washington. They even wanted me to take Secretary Atkinson. But I did not accept any of them, and I selected a Hawaiian, Keohokalele. When we left Honolulu, I gave him $100 for his first month's salary.

We arrived at San Francisco, took the train for Columbus, O., to speak for the Republican party with Mark Hanna. I then proceeded to Washington, and two weeks after my arrival I got a house and hired a cook and servants. Keohokalele lived with me and from the time he arrived in Washington until I dismissed him he did not have to pay for his board and lodging. I paid his fare to San Francisco and to Washington. It was not a month after my arrival that he began to show what he was. He became a habitual drunkard, was absent all the time and never attended to his business. I gave him several advices. At last I could not stand it any longer, and I discharged him, giving him my check for $100 to pay his fare to Hawaii. But instead of returning home, he went to New York and stayed there for months. He became very extravagant and soon had no more money. He returned to Washington and came to me for more money, asking me to forgive him. I gave him another check for $100, and he said "Thank you." He then went to Atlantic City and stayed there until he was short of money, and came back to me for more. With tears in his eyes he apologized. I did not send him out, but I gave him $90, and these were the last words I said to him. "This money is for you to return to Hawaii. It will just pay your traveling expenses to San Francisco, and from there on you will have to work your way back to Honolulu."

A few days after, I returned to Honolulu, and upon my arrival home I read in the papers that Keohokalele was still in Washington, in one of its jails. The Democrats then bought a ticket and sent it to Keohokalele so that he will return to Hawaii and speak against me in their campaign. When Keohokalele received the ticket he wrote to the sender thereof and said that if he did not trust him with money to buy his own ticket he will not return to Hawaii.

As for Lauka, his own son is at present in San Francisco begging on the streets. Why did Lauka disown him? Because he went wrong. Now are you going to blame me for dismissing my private secretary for the same reason? (Shouts of "No.") If any of you wish to ask me any questions I am here to answer. I am the Delegate of the people and not the Republicans only, and I shall be very much pleased to answer any question that you may ask.
